

With over two decades of proven expertise in business, finance and leadership, David boasts a rich career spanning various sectors, notably 12 years within the education industry.

In the realm of non-government schools, David's extensive experience encompasses a broad spectrum of crucial domains of areas vital for supporting strategic and day to day operations. From financial management and strategy development to property and ICT management, marketing, human resources, risk management and business continuity, David brings a multifaceted skill set to the table.

During his tenure on the finance advisory committee of the Independent Schools Queensland Block Grant Authority [QIS BGA], spanning over five years, David has conducted thorough assessments of the financial viability of numerous non-government schools. Additionally, he has served as a past management committee member and treasurer of the Association of School Business Administrators Queensland [ASBAQ].
